ECG Quiz

Wijesinghe RANK¹

Journal of the Ceylon College of Physicians, 2023, 54, 171-172

Question 1
This is an ECG of a patient who presented with progressive shortness of breath for one week. She has a disseminated breast carcinoma.

1.1. Identify three (03) abnormalities.
1.2. What is the likely diagnosis?

Question 2
This is an ECG of a patient who presented with progressive shortness of breath for one week. He has a history of heavy smoking but had stopped smoking 3 years ago.

2.1. Identify three (03) abnormalities.
2.2. What is the likely diagnosis?
Question 3
This is an ECG of a young woman who presented with sudden onset palpitations.

3.1. Identify two (02) abnormalities.

3.2. What is the diagnosis?

(Please see the page 173 for the answers)

Question 4
This is an ECG of a patient who was brought to the emergency department following a drug overdose. He has a history of a previous suicidal attempt 6 months ago.

4.1. Identify two (02) abnormalities.

4.2. What is the most likely diagnosis?

(Please see the page 173 for the answers)